

The Department of Immigration and Border Protection (the department) acknowledges that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples are the traditional custodians of the Australian land.

Life in Australia – Australian values

The Australian Government encourages people to gain an understanding of Australia, its people and their way of life, before applying for a visa to live in Australia. As part of this application every person aged 18 years or over must declare that they will respect Australian values, as outlined below and obey the laws of Australia.

Australian values include respect for the freedom and dignity of the individual, freedom of religion, commitment to the rule of law, Parliamentary democracy, equality of men and women and a spirit of egalitarianism that embraces mutual respect, tolerance, fair play and compassion for those in need and pursuit of the public good.

Australian society also values equality of opportunity for individuals, regardless of their race, religion or ethnic background.

It is also important to understand that English is the national language.

Further information is contained in the Life in Australia booklet, however, you are not required to read the booklet. The booklet is available in a wide range of languages. If you would like a copy of the booklet it can be obtained from www.immi.gov.au

About this form

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete your application. Once you have completed your application we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

Note: Any reference in this form to ‘country’ refers to ‘foreign country’ which is defined in paragraph 22(1)(f) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 as any country (whether or not an independent sovereign state) outside Australia and the external territories.

Who should use this application?

Applicants applying for a Work and Holiday (subclass 462) visa. Each applicant must apply individually and cannot include family members in their application.

Online applications

Applicants from the United States of America (USA) may apply on the department’s website. Payment must be made by credit card for online applications. Further information is available from the department’s website www.immi.gov.au/visit/

If you wish to apply online do not use this application.

Integrity of application

The department is committed to maintaining the integrity of the visa and citizenship programmes. In relation to this application, if you or a member of your family unit:

- provide, or have provided in a previous application, fraudulent documents or false or misleading information (knowingly or not); and/or
- fail to satisfy, or have failed to satisfy in a previous application, the Minister of your or their identity;

this visa application may be refused and you, and any members of your family unit, may become unable to be granted a visa for specified periods of time, as set out in migration legislation.

If documents are found to be fraudulent or information to be incorrect after the grant of a visa, the visa may subsequently be cancelled.

Visa overview

The Work and Holiday visa programme encourages cultural exchange and closer ties between arrangement countries by allowing young people to have an extended holiday supplemented by short-term employment.

A Work and Holiday visa allows the visa holder to:

- enter Australia within 12 months of the date of visa grant;
- stay in Australia for up to 12 months;
- leave and re-enter Australia any number of times while the visa is valid;
- work in Australia for up to 6 months with each employer; and
- study for up to 4 months.

Arrangement countries

Australia currently has reciprocal Work and Holiday arrangements with:

- Argentina;
- Bangladesh;
- Chile;
- Indonesia;
- Malaysia;
- Poland;
- Thailand;
- Turkey;
- the USA; and
- Uruguay.

Note: There is an annual limit to the number of visas that may be issued to applicants from:

- Argentina;
- Bangladesh;
- Chile;
- Indonesia;
- Malaysia;
- Poland;
- Thailand;
- Turkey; and
- Uruguay.

If the limit has been reached, applicants will be notified and the processing of their application may be delayed.

Australia continues to negotiate Work and Holiday arrangements with additional countries. To see whether any arrangements have been established with additional countries, check the department’s website www.immi.gov.au/visit/

Eligibility requirements

To be granted a visa, there are a number of eligibility requirements that applicants must meet.

All applicants must:

- be aged between 18 years and 30 years inclusive (at the time you apply);
- hold a passport from an eligible country, preferably valid for at least 6 months;
- have functional English;
- meet education requirements (see tables on pages 2 and 3);
- not be accompanied by dependent children;
- be outside Australia when you apply and when the visa is granted;
- not have entered Australia on a Work and Holiday (subclass 462) or Working Holiday (subclass 417) visa;
- have sufficient funds (generally AUD5,000);
- have funds for a return or onward ticket to depart Australia (or an actual ticket);
- have health insurance (recommended) covering your stay in Australia. This can be obtained in your home country or in Australia. More information is available from www.immi.gov.au/visit/;
- meet Australia's health requirement – depending on the country you are from and your intentions in Australia (such as entering a hospital, health care area, childcare centre or classroom), you may need to undertake a medical examination. More information is available from www.immi.gov.au/allforms/health-requirements/; and
- meet Australia's character requirement. More information is available from www.immi.gov.au/allforms/character-requirements/

Applicants from Argentina, Bangladesh, Chile, Indonesia, Malaysia, Poland, Thailand, Turkey and Uruguay must also:

- provide a letter of approval from your government agreeing to your stay in Australia under the Work and Holiday visa arrangement (the letter of support does not guarantee a place in the Work and Holiday programme); and
- provide proof of English proficiency.

How much does the visa cost?

Refer to Part G – Payment details of this form to calculate the correct charge and make payment.

Refer to www.immi.gov.au/fees-charges for a complete and current list of applicable fees and charges.

Fees and charges may be subject to change at any time and this may increase the cost of a visa application.

Generally, Visa Application Charges are reviewed on 1 July each year, and the exchange rates used to calculate the amount payable in a foreign country are updated on 1 January and 1 July each year.

If you do not pay the full Visa Application Charge amount, your visa application will not be valid.

Charges are generally not refundable, even if the application is withdrawn or refused.

Method of payment

Outside Australia

Before making a payment outside Australia, please check with the Australian Government office or Visa Application Centre where you intend to lodge your application as to what methods of payment and currencies they can accept and to whom the payment should be made payable.

How to apply

Step 1

Complete this application.

Please use a pen, and write neatly in English using BLOCK LETTERS.

You must provide the address where you intend to live while your application is being processed. Failure to give a residential address in your application will result in your application being invalid. A post office box address will not be accepted as your residential address.

Step 2

Refer to Part G – Payment details of this form to calculate the correct charge and make payment. Ensure that payment or evidence of payment is included with this application.

Step 3

Contact the Australian Government office or Visa Application Centre in the country where you will lodge your visa application (see below) to confirm application arrangements (eg. whether there are any additional local requirements). More information is available from www.immi.gov.au/help/pages/help-and-support.aspx

Step 4

Lodge your completed application with the correct Visa Application Charge, and required attachments (see Application checklist on page 6 of this application) as outlined below.

Applicants from the USA can lodge their application by post, fax or hand delivering this application to any Australian Immigration office overseas. Applicants from Argentina, Chile, Indonesia, Thailand and Turkey can lodge their application by post, fax or hand delivering this application to the Australian Immigration office in their country of passport. Applicants from Uruguay can lodge their application by post, fax or hand delivering this application to the Australian Immigration office in Argentina.

Do not send cash or your passport with your application.

Applicants from Bangladesh or Malaysia need to provide their biometrics (fingerprints scan and facial photograph) at a Visa Application Centre when lodging an application.

More information is available from

www.immi.gov.au/help/pages/help-and-support.aspx

If you lodge your application with the Australian Immigration Office in Dkaha, Bangladesh or Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia you will be required to attend a Visa Application Centre in person to provide your biometrics.

What happens next?

Your application will be assessed. You may be asked to provide additional information to enable a decision to be made. You will be advised in writing whether your application has been approved. If your application is refused, you will be given reasons for the decision.

You should not make any irreversible travel arrangements until you receive written advice of the department's decision on your application.

Note: If you are granted an Electronic Travel Authority (ETA) or Maritime Crew visa (MCV) as well as a Work and Holiday visa, you will activate the Work and Holiday visa on arrival in Australia, rather than the ETA or MCV. This will activate the 12 month stay period of the Work and Holiday visa, which will not be able to be postponed or deferred. If you want to travel on the ETA or MCV, you must have your Work and Holiday visa cancelled before travelling to Australia. You will be able to apply for a Work and Holiday visa in the future, provided you meet the eligibility requirements.

Important – change of personal/passport details

If you wish to change any details after you lodge your application, including your passport details, or if you wish to withdraw the application, please contact the department:

- Applicants from Argentina, Bangladesh, Chile, Indonesia, Malaysia, Poland, Thailand, Turkey and Uruguay – contact the Australian Immigration office overseas or Visa Application Centre where you lodged your application. More information is available from www.immi.gov.au/help/pages/help-and-support.aspx
- Applicants from the USA – Email eVisa.WANDH.Helpdesk@immi.gov.au

Your Work and Holiday visa application is linked to the passport number provided in your application. If you are granted a visa, but do not provide the department with the details of any new passport you use to travel to Australia, you will experience significant delays at the airport and could be denied permission to board your plane.

Immigration assistance

A person gives immigration assistance to you if he or she uses, or claims to use, his or her knowledge or experience in migration procedure to assist you with your visa application, request for ministerial intervention, cancellation review application, sponsorship or nomination.

In Australia a person may only lawfully give immigration assistance if he or she is a registered migration agent or is exempt from being registered. Only registered migration agents may receive a fee or reward for providing immigration assistance.

If an unregistered person in Australia, who is not exempt from registration, gives you immigration assistance they are committing a criminal offence and may be prosecuted.

Migration agents in Australia

Migration agents in Australia must be registered with the Office of the Migration Agents Registration Authority (Office of the MARA) unless they are exempt from registration.

Migration agents outside Australia

Migration agents who operate outside Australia do not have to be registered. The department may give some overseas agents an ID number. This number does not mean that they are registered.

Note: Some Australian registered migration agents operate overseas.

Migration agent information

A migration agent is someone who can:

- advise you on the visa that may best suit you;
- tell you the documents you need to submit with your application;
- help you fill in the application and submit it; and
- communicate with the department on your behalf.

If you appoint a migration agent, the department will assume that your migration agent will be your authorised recipient, unless you indicate otherwise.

Your migration agent will be the person with whom the department will discuss your application and from whom it will seek further information when required.

You are not required to use a migration agent. However, if you use a migration agent, the department encourages you to use a registered migration agent. Registered agents are bound by the Migration Agents Code of Conduct, which requires them to act professionally in their clients' lawful best interests.

Information on migration agents, including a list of registered migration agents, is available on the Office of the MARA website www.mara.gov.au

You can also access information about migration agents on the department's website www.immi.gov.au

Exempt persons

The following people do not have to be a registered migration agent in order to provide immigration assistance, but they must not charge a fee for their service:

- a close family member (spouse, de facto partner, child, parent, brother or sister);
- a member of parliament or their staff;
- an official whose duties include providing immigration assistance (eg. a Legal Aid provider);
- a member of a diplomatic mission, consular post or international organisation.

Appointing a migration agent/exempt person

To appoint a migration agent/exempt person you should complete Part F – Options for receiving written communications.

Your migration agent/exempt person should complete form 956 Advice by a migration agent/exempt person of providing immigration assistance.

Form 956 is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/

Options for receiving written communications

If you do not appoint a migration agent/exempt person you may still authorise another person, in writing, to receive written communications on your behalf. This person is called the authorised recipient.

Authorised recipient information

All written communication about your application will be sent to your authorised recipient, unless you indicate that you wish to have health and/or character information sent directly to you.

The department will communicate with the most recently appointed authorised recipient as you may only appoint one authorised recipient at any time for a particular application.

You will be taken to have received any documents sent to that person as if they had been sent to you.

To appoint an authorised recipient you should complete:

- Part F – Options for receiving written communications; and
- form 956A Appointment or withdrawal of an authorised recipient.

Note: Migration agents/exempt persons do not need to complete form 956A.

Form 956A is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/

Consent to communicate electronically

The department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or email will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

To process your application the department may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with.

If you agree to the department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the department for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Australian Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the department over the internet or by other electronic means.

If you authorise another person to receive documents on your behalf and they wish to be contacted electronically, their signature is required on form 956 or 956A to indicate their consent to this form of communication.

Note: Electronic communication is the fastest means of communication available and the department prefers to communicate electronically because this results in faster processing.

Important information about privacy

Your personal information is protected by law, including the Privacy Act 1988. Important information about the collection, use and disclosure (to other agencies and third parties, including overseas entities) of your personal information, including sensitive information, is contained in form 1442i Privacy notice. Form 1442i is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/ or offices of the department. You should ensure that you read and understand form 1442i before completing this form.

Application checklist

This checklist is provided for your assistance and lists the required and optional documents to include with your application. It is not a requirement of your application.

Note: Processing of your application will be delayed if you do not provide all the required information and documents at the time of lodgement.

Note: Certified copies are copies authorised, or stamped as being true copies or originals, by a person or agency recognised by the law of the country in which you currently reside.

Note: If your documents are in a language other than English, translations into English must be provided.
